

Cattle men in Lake Creek

SUMMARY OF ALLERGY STUDY

MARCH 4, 19

Asthma.

T. ILLNESS: Sixty-five-year-old retired farmer with history of severe and shortness of breath twenty years ago associated with a cold and bronch have persisted until T. and A., since then no recurrence of bronchial ears ago when wheezing again accompanied a bronchial infection. Sinceptoms with coughing, wheezing, and shortness of breath noted perennial, i